Ortigas Center, Pasig City

MCLE Resolution No. 4, s. 2010

In view of the several complaints filed in the MCLE Office against lawyers who have obtained MCLE exemption on account of old age and physical disability who nevertheless use their exemption to actively engage in the practice of law in spite of the requirement that such may be used only for the purpose of obtaining a notarial commission pursuant to MCLE Governing Board No. 01-2007, the MCLE Governing Board resolved to require applicants for exemption on the ground of old age and physical disability, to submit with their application for exemption an undertaking that he/she will not engage in the practice of law, except notarial services, in addition to other requirements under Bar Matter No. 850 and existing resolutions of the Board.

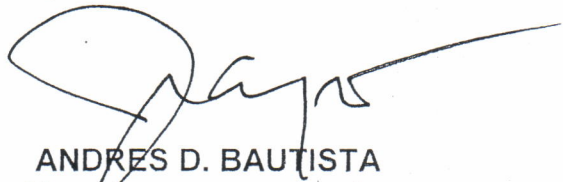

This resolution shall take effect immediately.

3 March 2010.
