MCLE Governing Board Resolution No. 005-2014

Resolution Requiring Private Providers To Affiliate With A Law School Accredited by the Legal Education Board and Recognized by the MCLE Governing Board

WHEREAS, the MCLE Governing Board has reviewed existing policies relative to the over-all conduct of MCLE activities;

WHEREAS, there is a need to conduct the MCLE activities in a more academic manner so as to offer a high standard of legal education and maximize the learning experience of the participants;

WHEREAS, the law schools have the expertise, experience and commitment to provide quality legal education to members of the Bar;

WHEREAS, the law schools maintain a roster of law professors who are known experts in their respective fields who can be tapped to conduct lectures on specialized subjects;

WHEREFORE, all accredited MCLE Providers and those which shall subsequently be accredited are required to affiliate themselves with a law school accredited by the Legal Education Board and recognized by the MCLE Governing Board, by entering into a Memorandum of Agreement, specifying the terms and conditions thereof, with the law school taking major responsibility for the academic contents of the MCLE program based on the subject requirements under Bar Matter No. 850.
